Reason for Allowance

2. Applicant's arguments filed 12/18/08 (on pages 6-9 of the response) with respect to claims 1-13 and 16-21 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of the claims has been withdrawn from the previous office action (mailed 9/19/08) and the claims 1-13 and 16-21 are allowed.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The present invention relates to releasably attachable active housings devised to provide functional modules for a radio communication terminal.

The invention further discloses a radio communication terminal assembly comprising

- a radio communication terminal having a printed circuit board carrying data processing means for controlling terminal functions
- a terminal system connector accessible from the outside of the terminal for attaching auxiliary components to the terminal
- attaching means for releasable attachment of a housing to the terminal
- and a housing connector configured to provide a communicative connection of an attached housing to the data processing means
- wherein the terminal comprises a multipath connector connected to the printed circuit board and to the data processing means, wherein the terminal system connector forms a first connector interface to the multipath connector, and the housing, connector forms a second connector interface to the multipath connector.

However, the prior art reference individually or in combination fails to render the above underlined unique feature obvious. Therefore claims 1-13 and 16-21 are allowed.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 7, "terminal comprises and a" should read as --terminal comprises a--.

Appropriate correction is required.
